Morning Announcements

November 14th, 2011

Homeroom Will Be Extended!

We will have a special presentation during morning announcements on November 14th.

Hailey Carano will be recognized, once again, as our slogan contest winner. The winners of our school's t-shirt design contest will also be announced, along with the Lower Grade and Upper Grade Runners-Up.

After the announcement of winners, these students will be the first to get their "Take a Stand, Lend a Hand" Bracelets and Pledge Cards. Our student representatives will read and demonstrate signing the pledge.

Prior to the Morning Announcements, each homeroom class will be given their "Take a Stand, Lend a Hand" Bracelets and Pledge Cards. We are asking if the homeroom teacher will please take the time to hand out the bracelets and have their students sign their pledge cards after our the morning announcements. Pledge cards can then be collected and displayed on a classroom bulletin board if you would like.

If any teacher would like ideas of how to extend this activity into a more in-depth class meeting, please feel free to see Jill Kuppel.

Bracelets & Pledge Cards for Students & Staff

“Take a Stand Lend a Hand”

All staff and students will receive their bracelets and pledge cards on November 14th!

Pledge Banner For All Staff & Students

Rachel Mattera continues to work with the students during Art Class to have them sign our Pledge Banner.

Once the banner is completed,
we will find a place to hang it in our school for all to see.

Thank You,
Mrs. Mattera!
We appreciate your help during Art Class!

T-Shirt Design Contest

We are working on tapping into some funding sources for our t-shirt production. The School Safety Team has selected “neon” green with white lettering to be the format of our new design.

We are looking forward to our finished products!

Thank you, Mrs. Matera for helping our students participate in this activity during Art Class!

Anonymous Reporting Form & Procedures

The School Safety Team has finalized our H.I.B. Anonymous Report Form and its accompanying procedures. A representative from our School Safety Team will be presenting the form and procedures to Lower & Upper Teams respectively.

During these meetings, we will be asking teachers for suggestions on how to present this new, mandated part of our H.I.B. program to students.
